Lucy Moore is a professional actor and storyteller. Based in the south of England, she is an experienced speaker, workshop leader and performer. Lucy is a member of the Barnabas Ministry Team.

With a special interest in drama and storytelling, all-age church and collective worship in schools, her work takes her into schools and churches across the region and beyond. She is a member of Equity, an accredited Godly Play teacher, is part of the Children's Advisory Group for Portsmouth Diocese, on the leadership team of and an Associate Missioner for Fresh Expressions.

Lucy enjoys both performance work and helping all those working in schools and churches to explore creative and appropriate ways of opening up the Bible with children through enjoyable hands-on training with plenty of opportunity for discussion and reflection.

After training and working as a teacher, Lucy combined working as Drama Advisor for the Diocese of Bradford with youth and children's work in her local churches. Moving to the south, she worked freelance for BRF as a performer in schools before taking up her present post and combining it with writing.
